Reading Challenge Summer 2023

The librarians want to read 4,000 books this summer--not alone, but all together and they need your help! Track all the titles of books you read between June 19 and July 31 on this bookmark and return it to the library when you are finished.

Teen Cooking 101

This four-week cooking class for teens (ages 11-17) will cover basic cooking skills and recipes. Each Thursday, starting June 29, 11:30am-1:30pm.

Super Secret Saturdays

Saturdays at the library this summer are getting a new name! Join us for our Super Secret Saturdays this summer for weekly family fun events.

What activities are being planned? It's so secret, we don't even know what's going on!

Monday Movie Matinees

Our summer theme is focused on the 60's, and so is our film series. Join us for a mix of movies and documentaries meant to highlight some of the key moments in a decade filled with news worthy moments. Mondays, starting July 10th starting at 2:00pm.

Teen Campfire

The library's annual Teen Campfire will be held on Tues, August 8 at 7:00pm. Those ages 11-17 are invited to attend our annual campfire with stories, games, and s'mores and other campfire goodies.

The library's storywalk is located at the Park on G and is available to enjoy at any time. Be sure to sign the guest book before you leave!

Tiniest Art Show!

Create a miniature painting and have your artwork displayed at the library as part of our Tiny Art Show! Mini artist kits will be available at the library starting June 12. The theme for this year's show will be "All Together Now." Limited supplies will be made available at the library or take your canvas home and add your own flair. All we ask is that finished masterpieces be returned to the Library by Friday, June 30 to be featured in the art show which opens on Wednesday, July 5.
